

The figure displays a network graph with two main clusters of nodes. The left cluster is primarily purple, and the right cluster is primarily blue. Nodes are labeled with IDs and types, such as '76 (type1)' and '310 (type2)'. The nodes are interconnected by a dense web of black lines representing edges. The overall shape is roughly circular, with the clusters meeting in the middle.